

*The Farley Center
at Williamsburg Place*

Leslie Guilfoyle, ME.d., CSAC
Therapist

Leslie Guilfoyle completed both her undergraduate (BA with a minor in psychology) and her Master of Education (MEd) with a specialty in Teaching from Virginia Commonwealth University. In 2009, she completed the Substance Abuse Counseling program in which she interned at The Healing Place in Richmond, Virginia.

Before joining The Farley Center at Williamsburg Place, she worked for two years as a Substance Abuse Counselor for Human Resources, Inc. (aka: “Jump Street”) in Richmond, Virginia. She earned the title of Certified Substance Abuse Counselor (CSAC) in October, 2010. Leslie is also trained in Substance Abuse Friends and Family Therapy and is a Board Member and acting Secretary of SAARA (Substance Abuse and Addiction Recovery Alliance) in Richmond, Virginia.

Leslie’s areas of interest and expertise include codependency, women’s issues, relapse prevention, trauma and addiction, sex addiction and PTSD issues.

5477 Mooretown Rd., Williamsburg, Virginia 23188
(757) 565-0106 (800) 582-6066
www.farleycenter.com